TICKETS AT THE MEETING.

The Ski Season Started with Early Season Warm Up!

More than 700 NBS'ers converged on Aspen Snowmass December 2 – 9, 2006 from more than 20 clubs and Black Ski represented well with more than 75 attendees. The week began with great skiing conditions and excellent skiing and snowboarding lessons for Never Evers and seasoned skiers.

Happy hours at the Cirque were the place to be on a daily basis. Games night on Thursday was pretty intense for the more serious! Both Uno and Jenga players were not to be disturbed while planning their next moves. Friday's Picnic on the Hill provided many opportunities to reunite with old ski buddies who hadn't been seen since last season as well as introductions to first timers. Spider Sabich offered many awesome photo opportunities for clubs and individuals, Nastar races and Challenge Cup competitions. Sunday's Welcome party and Friday's Beach Party featured the youth scholarship raffles with opportunities to win digital cameras, iPods, skies, clothing and a plasma screen TV amongst other prizes and raised more than $5,300 to support the youth development program.

A great week was had by all. If you didn't have the opportunity to join us this season, look for the next Early Season Warm Up to appear on our trip calendar in the coming months.

GenerationNext @ Pajama Jam '07

At just a year in existence GenerationNext embarked on a journey to Snowshoe, WV for Pajama Jam '07 to party and ski with ATL's Southern Snow Seekers (SSS) January 26 – 28, 2007. Our bus ride began at 3:30 am getting us on the mountain by 9:30 and ready to hit the slopes. Friday was bitterly cold – in the teens and below – but the snow was good and being made throughout the day. Friday night SSS hosted our Welcome Party and Fish Fry. All ate well and GenerationNext got the party started right!

Included in our group of 21 were skiers from Chicago, New Jersey, Richmond and Buffalo who joined those from California, North and South Carolina and of course Atlanta and DC numbering 75 in total.

Saturday's skiing was much warmer – in the 30s – the slopes were great and the camaraderie increased as the day went on, groups of attendees skied together leaving no one behind. The evening began with an informal Happy Hour and ended with the Pajama Jam! Once again GenerationNext got the dancing started and the ATL DJ even obliged us by playing a bit of old school Go-Go which filled the dance floor. Of course included in evening's festivities was a pajama contest for the brave attendees who dared to very tastefully strut their stuff in front of the crowd to be judged by all. None of us GenNexters were courageous enough to participate.

Great parties, great skiing, great new friends we will be back for Pajama Jam '08!
