Black Ski's Youth Skier Outreach to Feed the Homeless before the Scenic Great Falls Mile Hike

On Sunday, October 14th, the Black Ski Youth Skiers very conscientiously took advantage of the opportunity to be involved at the inner city outreach at 4th Street Friendship Mission. Black Ski Youth Skiers...they learned, they worked, they talked and very enthusiastically provided apples, bananas, juice and water to enhance feeding of 60+ meals to the homeless and underserved community.

These Black Ski Youth Skiers learned and discussed the importance feeding the needy spiritual, physical, and mental food. They cooperated along beside their parents in showing patience, self respect while sharing love, hope and purpose for the potential of others. of the Mission to provide

Now, the long awaited highlight of the day arrived for the Black Ski Youth skiers to venture for a FUN filled little walk along the C&O Canal at Great Falls where the Potomac River flows over a series of steep, jagged rocks through a narrow gorge. These youth walked down the towpath a short way and saw a section of the channel narrow lock and a little further where the water was really moving. They made a turn off the towpath onto a boardwalk and they could start to hear a constant rumble in the distance near the overlook of the bulk of the Potomac River. Upon arrival, they could see a beautiful waterfall across a gorge.

On the way back, a few youth stopped to pose where the water roars through several chutes across the gorge. With a sharp eye, they saw a blue herrings and a swirling kayaker, looking like a toy boat. They ran and jumped across broken rocks, threw rocks, climbed a steep terrain hills and watched a mule pull the river boat into the narrow channel lock. At the end of the day, they had not been disappointed.

Join us now, while we are starting to plan our ski trips and development training. Send us an e-mail at youth@blackskiinc.org with the guardian or sponsor's name, youth name, age, address, e-mail address and primary phone number. Don't miss the FUN next time.

Rebuilding Together, formerly Christmas in April, of Washington, DC is a 501(c) (3) tax-exempt non-profit organization. Known in the community since 1983 as Christmas in April of Washington, DC, we underwent a name change in 2001. Although the name changed, we are the same group with the same mission: to assist low-income elderly and disabled homeowners and families with children to continue living in their own homes when they cannot make critical home repairs or accessibility improvements. Additionally, we repair some nonprofit facilities and public schools.

Rebuilding Together of Washington, DC helps those in need through the practice of “neighbors helping neighbors.” In the years since the program began, hundreds of volunteer groups have come forward to repair over 2,500 homes and nonprofits in the District of Columbia, helping to raise the spirits of elderly and disabled homeowners and improving their own team spirit. During the last weekend of April each year, more than 3,000 volunteers fan out across the city to make repairs at approximately 100 project sites. The numbers of volunteers who participate and the popularity of the program increases each year.

Most of the work on project sites occurs on weekends throughout April, culminating on Rebuilding Day, a big blitz-like effort during the last weekend of the month. However, if sponsors prefer, groups can work on a special project at another time of the year (see “Custom” Community Service Days).
