Voyage to Aspen/Snowmass!

It was a brisk December morning when some 50 Black Ski members converged on BWI Marshall Airport to journey to Aspen/Snowmass for the NBS Early Out. The date was December 3rd and all arrived on time for our 8:15 am United flight. Our group boarded the aircraft, and took off on time. Along the way we encountered a bit of turbulence delaying the arrival of our flight to Denver. Our deplaning was rather rushed since we landed at 10:50 am and our connecting flight was to depart at 11:15 am.

Upon arrival at our gate we discovered that our flight was delayed by 45 minutes. Most thought no problem we will chill, get something to eat and wait to board the flight. 45 minutes grew into an hour, 2 hours, flight cancelled. FLIGHT CANCELLED! WHAT! OK how are we getting to Aspen now? today? We've got to hit the slopes tomorrow!

Trip Director Bill Wyatt visited Customer Service to determine our options and rebook the entire group on a later flight. As we sat awaiting information, flights that had taken off earlier in the day returned to Denver due to poor visibility in Aspen. Then came the announcement that all remaining flights were cancelled, so what now! United offered nothing free—No Lodging—No Ground Transportation to Aspen. But they were willing to rebook the group on flights departing Sunday December 4th.

Everyone considered their options. Bill offered the group discounted lodging vouchers and many made reservations to spend the night in Denver. Others considered renting 4x4s and driving through the "white out" conditions to Aspen/Snowmass. A few secured ground transportation, at more than $100 per person, to ensure their arrival in Snowmass that night.

Those who decided to spend the night in Denver began departing the airport around 4 pm. By 11:30 am the following day those remaining in Denver began to arrive at Denver International Airport. Some club members were scheduled to depart at 2:18 pm and others at 8:15 pm due to seating availability on each flight. Once reaching the ticket counter the agent offered some of the individuals who were scheduled for the later flight the opportunity to go on stand by for the 12:25 flight. The offer was accepted and the race to beat the clock began! The agent had a great deal of difficulty making the updates in the computer delaying some of the club members from receiving their boarding passes in a timely manner. Once the passes were received we proceeded to security and 3 of the persons on standby for the earlier flight had special "You get the full body search" codes on their passes creating a further delay. Once each bag and body was thoroughly searched the race to the gate began again.

As luck would have it the flight departed early and it was missed by all Black Ski members. Well wouldn't ya know it déjà vu all over again, everyone arrived at the airport, waited and waited through delay after delay, all remaining flights were cancelled and we were no closer to Aspen than the day before.

OK this flying into Aspen thing obviously isn't working for Black Ski...so its onto ground transportation. Bill approached several companies who gave prices in excess of $100 for the more than 30 remaining members until the "Home Boy Hookup" got wind of what was going on and offered a bus at $75 per person. Of course great American capitalism prevailed and one of the $100 companies countered at $65 and the offer was accepted. Some 3 hours later the bus arrived and all boarded.

Through white-out conditions, prayer and wonders of "how can this guy see the road" and "why are we the only ones out here" as we passed tractor trailers pulled off on the side of the road somehow we made the journey safely. As luck would have it the Aspen airport was closed by our 11 pm arrival leaving us to spend yet another day in the clothes we dressed in Saturday morning. Fortunately we were able to retrieve our luggage without problems on Monday morning and all was well.

Despite the major transportation issues we endured on the way to Aspen we had a wonderful time, skiing was great. The return flights departed and arrived on time and we will do it all again next year! See you at Early Out in Aspen/Snowmass December 2-9, 2006! – Vicki McGill, VP, Communications

Black Ski Happenings....

Happy New Year! THANK YOU to everyone who has contributed time or money to the youth program this past year.

How can you help the Youth Program this year? You can contribute $25, $50 or $100 to help a youth learn to ski. Your donations will help deserving young people from financially challenged families who want to take advantage of the 1-2-Ski opportunity. Let's show some love from the Black Ski Family.

It's now time to hit the snow. Don't know how to ski? We have some seats left for the 1-2-SKI program. 1-2-Ski begins on Jan. 22nd. Sign up to participate.

We need volunteers to act as Ski Ambassadors for the 1-2-Ski program. As a 1-2-Ski Ambassador you will give encouragement and guidance to participants after their class to help them gain confidence. Just like when you started, someone helped you! It's going to be fun for all. Contact Ray Williams ray.l.williams@verizon.net 202.561.3291 or Kenny Greenhouse kfg301@aol.com 301.627.8455 for participation and details.
-Ray Williams, VP, Youth

Calling All Young Adults to Generation Next!

Black Ski Inc. is embarking on an effort to plan and facilitate a number of activities throughout 2006 specifically for our club members ages 21 - 30 something! These activities will include day ski trips, ice skating, bowling, horseback riding, happy hours and many other networking, sports and social activities. In order to facilitate these activities we need your help! We are seeking club members to assist in brainstorming and planning fun-filled activities. Our first GenerationNext meeting will be Saturday, January 21, 2006 at 1 pm at the Turkey Thicket Recreation Center at 1100 Michigan Ave. NE, Washington, DC. Contact Vicki McGill for more information nubian1@yahoo.com, 202.526.6246.

An urgent reminder from the VP of Admin Support

- Please do not send mail to the P.O. Box that requires a signature for receipt. This requires special arrangements for pick-up that will delay receipt of your mail by a week or more.
- Please do not use staples. Check destruction can occur.
- You can write one check for multiple activities. Please indicate in the memo section, the dollar amount for each activity.

Thanks,
Ted Peters,
VP, Admin Support
